

WARDEN MESSAGE
U.S. Embassy Athens, Greece

November 14, 2008

The United States Embassy and Consulate General Thessaloniki wish to alert American citizens in Greece of the potential for large demonstrations throughout Greece on Monday, November 17. This is the anniversary of the final day (November 17, 1973) of the protest by students at Athens Polytechnic University against the military junta that ruled Greece during the period 1967 – 1974. Demonstrations are expected to take place in Athens in the afternoon and evening in the vicinity of the U.S. Embassy, and in Thessaloniki in the area of the U.S. Consulate General, as well as in and near university campuses.

We wish to remind American citizens that even demonstrations intended to be peaceful can turn confrontational and possibly escalate into violence. In the past, some demonstrations on November 17 have included violence and destruction of property. Americans are therefore urged to avoid the areas of demonstrations, and to exercise caution if within the vicinity of any demonstrations. Traffic and public transportation in the vicinity of demonstrations are likely to be adversely affected. American citizens seeking Embassy or Consulate General services on November 17th should be aware that we expect to close at 2 pm and may close earlier should circumstances warrant.

For up-to-date information regarding Embassy or Consulate General closures, please visit <http://athens.usembassy.gov/> or <http://thessaloniki.usconsulate.gov/>. In case of an emergency when the Embassy or Consulate General is closed, an American in Greece can call (210) 729-4444 or (210) 729-4301, and ask to speak to a consular officer.

American citizens in Greece should also monitor the local news, and for the latest security information, Americans living and traveling abroad should regularly monitor the Department's Bureau of Consular Affairs Internet web site at <http://www.travel.state.gov>, where the current Worldwide Cautions, Travel Alerts, and Travel Warnings can be found. American citizens may also obtain up-to-date information on security conditions overseas by calling 1-888-407-4747 toll-free in the United States or Canada, and 1-202-501-4444 from overseas. These numbers are available from 8:00 a.m. to 8:00 p.m. Eastern Time, Monday through Friday (except U.S. federal holidays). American citizens living or traveling abroad are encouraged to register with the nearest U.S. Embassy or Consulate through the State Department's travel registration web site at <https://travelregistration.state.gov/ibrs/ui/>.
